

WHAT'S SO SPECIAL ABOUT WIENXTRA?

WIENXTRA is an organisation set up to help all children and young people right across Vienna. Whether festivals, music, cinema, games or media – WIENXTRA invites you to join in and play your part in shaping the city. Ten institutions offer services ranging from events and information to education and counselling, either for a low price or completely free of charge. There's a broad educational programme for adults.

WIENXTRA cooperates closely with the City of Vienna and in particular, with its Municipal Department for Child and Youth Welfare.

WHO'S IT FOR?

WIENXTRA is for... - children and young people between the ages of 0 and 25 - for school classes - for adults travelling with children in Vienna - for adults working with children and young people, such as youth workers, teachers, nursery school teachers... - for anyone interested in leisure, media or educational play.

WHO ARE WE?

WIENXTRA's employees are experts in working with children and young people and are always in touch with what's going on with the young population. They are well connected with other institutions of the City of Vienna and are passionately devoted to the interests of their target groups.

We'd love to hear your feedback. Give us a call, email us or visit our facilities. We will also be happy to provide you with an overview and contact details of our central organisational areas.

WHAT'S BEHIND ALL THIS?

WIENXTRA stands for quality. Our actions are based on well thought-out concepts and pedagogical expertise. Practiced principles such as participation, diversity and gender equality ensure that everyone feels comfortable and can participate in our activities.

WHAT'S IMPORTANT TO US!

So that we can ensure that truly anyone is able to take part in our activities, they're always either extremely low-priced or free of charge. This is because we believe that culture, education and participation are not privileges, but are rights that everyone should be able to enjoy.
